AN OLD CONTROVERSY REVIVED.CAN THEY RETAIN THE NAME OF THE 7TH REGIMENT VETERAN CLUB?

The Veteran controversy in the 7th Regiment appears to have broken out afresh, in fact it has never abated, but the recent proceedings have not been made public. The question rests entirely upon the right of the veterans to use the name "7th Regiment Veteran Club" for the social organization which has lately established a club in Fifth Ave., near Fifty-eighth St. The protest of the officers of the regiment against this action by the veterans was unheeded by the latter, and they did not even answer the letter of protest from the officers until nearly a month after it had been received. When the new club-house was opened the veterans sent a letter to the officers, of which the following are the main points:

"We cannot but believe that it will become an incentive for recruiting and a pleasure for those serving in the regiment to have a place where they can meet and enjoy the society of their comrades without resorting to public places for sociability. No other name than the 7th Regiment Veteran Club, under the circumstances, would be appropriate."

The governors, who deeply sensible of the weight of your request, beg to state that it cannot be acted upon, for the reason that in their opinion the matter is beyond the jurisdiction vested in the governors by the club."

We had every reason to suppose that the officers of the regiment would be among the first to unite with us and re-establish cordial and friendly relations between them and ex-members of our dear old 7th Regiment, our alma mater."

Since then the Board of Officers has issued a circular which has been mailed to each member of the regiment, containing the correspondence between the Veterans and the Board of Officers. The circular also contained the following:

"The position of the Board of Officers is that the establishment of a place where the members of the regiment can meet and enjoy the society of their comrades without resorting to public places for sociability, and their desire that the regiment shall stand for pre-eminence in military and manly occupation and valor and ever be removed from the shadow of an imputation that it stands for club life in any of its objectionable features."

In the present instance the solicitation and inducement of the young men of the regiment to enter the 7th Regiment Veteran Club as associate members in disposes that the organizers have had less in view sociality among the veterans than sociability among the young men of the regiment."

To the members of the regiment who may all be trusted with the reputation of their organization, no matter what their rank or grade, and to the community who look to the officers of the regiment to protect its name, the letter enclosing the request of the Board is left without further comment."

William H. Palmer, Captain 1 R. P. The Veterans then sent an individual invitation to the rank and file of the regiment and entirely ignored the officers. This was the invitation:

The 7th Regiment Veteran Club, New-York, Jan. 14, 1890.

Dear Sir: You are cordially invited to accept the hospitality of the club on Tuesday evening, the 21st inst. at 9:30 o'clock. Very respectfully, Locke W. Winchester, President. A. Garrison, Secretary.

This invitation is intended for every member of your company, whether he receives a notice or not. This is where the matter rests at present. What the outcome will be is hard to say.

A FAREWELL DINNER TO HENRY GEORGE.

Mr. Henry George will leave this city for San Francisco on Wednesday, and will deliver two or three lectures on his way West. He will sail from San Francisco on February 7 for Australia, stopping in New Zealand to deliver a few lectures, and then making a speaking tour in behalf of free trade throughout the colony of New South Wales, where he goes as a guest of the Liberal and Free-Trade party, in power in that colony.

Tomorrow evening, at 7 o'clock, a dinner will be given to Mr. George at the Metropolitan Hotel, in this city. Though the dinner is under the auspices of the Manhattan Single Tax Club, it is not designed that it shall be simply a single-tax demonstration. Men of varying views, who appreciate the work that Mr. George has done in arousing public attention to social problems and the subject of taxation, will participate. Among the speakers will be the Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott, A. Augustus Healy, president of the Brooklyn Young Men's Democratic Club; Wheeler H. Peckham, president of the New-York Ballot Reform League; Captain John Codman, Thomas G. Shearman, D. E. Beard, the artist, William Lloyd Garrison, James A. Herne, John H. Wray, George F. Harris, the famous landscape painter; John E. Mills, of California, and Peter Altain, president of the Brooklyn Single Tax Club.

THE REAL ESTATE MARKET QUIET.

The real estate market was unusually quiet last week so far as completed sales go. The settlement of the World's Fair question and the passage of the new rapid transit bill are looked forward to as likely to enliven the market. An idea of the many interests involved in some of these is shown by the fact that in a recent transfer of a plot of over six lots on the southeast corner of Park-ave. and Seventy-fifth-st., eight deeds were necessary to give title to the shares held by a number of heirs. A ten-share certificate of the Real Estate Exchange stock was sold at auction Wednesday for $1,200. It was bought by H. W. Donald.

The market for downtown properties continues strong with a large demand, while for property in the new residence districts there was little demand.

WHAT MR. ROGERS IS DEAD IN LONDON.

A strange, weird story was printed yesterday, in the form of a London dispatch, which suggested that the body of a former member of the firm of Drexel, Morgan & Co. had been kept at a fashionable hotel there until American friends could cross the Atlantic. At the office of Drexel, Morgan & Co. it was said that apparently no error had been made. J. C. Rogers had been a partner of J. S. Morgan in London, but he was living in Boston and was said to be something more than a corpse. No man of the name of J. C. Rogers was known by the New-York firm.
